

Dillingham Arts Council

Supporting the Arts in Bristol Bay

www.dlgarts.org

Calendar of Events for 2012-13

The Dillingham Arts Council Presents...

October 5, 2012

Borealis Brass – America's Arctic Brass Ensemble - members of the group are University of Alaska Fairbanks faculty Dr. Karen Gustafson, trumpet, Jane Aspnes, horn, and Dr. James Bicigo, trombone, who perform as soloists and with ensembles in North America, Europe and Asia. www.borealisbrass.com

November 17, 2012

Coffee House - Dillingham's finest artists entertain the community with an enjoyable evening of sparkling performances: music, recitals, plus fine desserts and much, much more.

December 1, 2012
(Saturday)

Christmas Bazaar - regional artists sell a wide array of arts and crafts plus a visit from Santa Claus.

January 19, 2013
(tentative date)

Alaska Ocean Film Festival – Sixth annual festival featuring selected ocean related films. In addition a Children's Art Show, and the Bristol Bay People's Choice Photograph Awards. Co-sponsorship with Alaska Center for the Environment & UAF/BBC taradenbaugh@alaska.edu

February 9, 2013
(tentative date)

Peter Yeates - a veteran singer/songwriter/guitarist from Dublin, Ireland who's toured the United States and Canada extensively. He's also performed in Germany Switzerland, Denmark, Sweden, Romania, Russia, Mexico, Bermuda, Korea and his native Ireland. Peter now resides in the Pacific-Northwest of the United States. Performances scheduled for school students and community. www.peteryeates.com

Sponsored by Wells Fargo Bank, Nushagak Cooperative, ASCA, and Dillingham Mini Storage
For more information about these events or involvement with Dillingham Arts Council, call 842.3220 evenings.