MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL
COVID-19 COMMUNITY UPDATE

Purpose: To follow up on the Covid-19 outbreak in Dillingham publicly announced on February 3, 5, and 10, 2021, the Mayor and the City Council are convening a City of Dillingham public meeting (i) to briefly update the community on the status of the impact of the outbreak and projected next-steps, and (ii) to invite the public to ask questions of the City, make comments to the Mayor and Council, and importantly, to offer recommendations to the City on possible Covid-related actions going forward. So that everyone has an equal opportunity to speak, please respect the time limits for speaking and asking questions provided below. Thank you.³

*Remarks by speakers are allowed for a “firm” 5 minutes to allow everyone an equal opportunity to speak. Remarks include a brief summary of the existing Covid situation and projections or plans for future. Also, please offer recommendations to the City of Dillingham for Covid-plans, policies, or procedures for the 2021 fishing season.

 Remarks by member of the public are allowed for a firm 3 minutes to allow everyone an equal opportunity to speak. Public input is invited to include recommendations to the City of Dillingham for Covid-plans, policies, or procedures for now and for the 2021 fishing season.

UPDATED?

² Workshops are informal discussions, sessions held for purposes of exchanging and gathering information. No action may be taken, formal rules of order are relaxed, and minutes are not kept.

³ Due to limitations of time, this meeting is limited to the speakers identified here. The City plans to convene another meeting in the near future to obtain valuable input from representatives of the many other very important organizations in Dillingham.
