*A certificate of registration is non-assignable and non-transferable and must be surrendered to the sales tax administrator by the registrant to whom it is issued upon the registrant's ceasing to do business at the location or on the vessel named therein. If the business is continued at the same location, but there is a change in its form or organization such as single proprietorship to a corporation, or the admission or withdrawal of a partner the registrant shall surrender the old certificate to the sales tax administrator with an application for a new certificate. If the business of a registrant is sold, leased or in any other manner transferred to another person, the registrant shall surrender the certificate to the sales tax administrator and the new owner, lessee or other successor to the business shall immediately apply for a new certificate
